

I highly object to this misuse of media power for Sinclair's political agenda. All political advertising has gotten out of hand but this is the worst because they are disguising it as "news". What has happened to our great democracy?